River Project Planned

The proposed project of a dam and reservoir, access roads, and recreation areas of Pea River above Arton, Alabama, in the Choctawhatchee - Perdido basin is now being planned. The principal streams in this basin area are Pea River, Choctawhatchee, Yellow, Blackwater, Escambia-Concuch, and Perdido Rivers. The Pea River dam and reservoir would provide benefits for recreation, fish and wildlife, and most important, flood control. This project is known as the Arton project.

The dam would be an earthen structure with a side channel spillway. At normal full pool the reservoir would have an area of 5,000 acres. Flood control storage behind normal pool and spillway crest would reduce flooding at Elba and Geneva, Alabama, and Caryville, Florida.

The area which would be inundated by the reservoir is mostly wooded and relocations would be required for fishing, picnicking, swimming, boating, camping, and sight-seeing and would satisfy requirements for about 45,000 user-days of fishing and 350,000 user-days of recreation. The creation of a large fresh-water lake in the area, where none now exists, would result in considerable homestead development areas around the lakeshore.

Barbour County has been declared a distressed area by reason of low farm income in the county. The construction of the dam and reservoir would provide employment, sales of materials and equipment, increased housing and food service opportunities, and many other benefits during the installation period to Barbour, Pike, Coffee and surrounding counties.

The Crestview damsite is located on the Yellow River about four miles west of Crestview in Oklahoma County, Florida, and about two miles upstream from the bridge crossing the river on U.S. Highway 90. The reservoir would extend upstream from the dam about 18 miles, of which would be in Alabama.

The proposed Crestview project consists of a dam

ROTARY SPEAKER for Monday, March 22, was Mrs. N. O. Patterson of Enterprise who is a refugee from the communist dominated country of Estonia.

Mrs. Patterson gave an interesting and informative talk on how her native country was taken over by the communists and the methods they used to instill terror and fear into everyone to the point that a person would fabricate a story about the wrongdoings of a friend to protect himself and/or his children.

According to Mrs. Patterson everyone should be alert to the dangers of Communism because in the three Baltic countries including Estonia the ordinary citizens didn't even know what was going on until they heard "rumors" the next day that the mayor had been arrested!

Shown in this picture are Charlie Hayes, program chairman; Mrs. Vela Paschal of Enterprise who introduced the speaker; Mrs. Patterson and K. W. Anderson, Elba Rotary President.

Beware Of Medicine Quacks

Gone are the days of the old-time medicine show promoting cure-alls and youth-restoring tonics. But the medicine man is still with us. Today he is a pseudoscientific salesman who dances on a thin line between fact and fiction. He sells his worthless wares to the tune of $1 billion per year. But the toll in shattered hopes, progressive illness and loss of life caused by listening to the quack and delaying proper medical diagnosis and treatment cannot be estimated in dollars, warns Doctor Ira L. Myers, State Health Officer, and Doctor C. D. McLeod, of the Coffee County Department of Health.

The modern medicine man wears many masks. He may hide behind the cloak of impressive-sounding titles of quasi-medical degrees and diplomas. Frequently he uses an electrically operated device for diagnosis and treatment. These devices, which look Brooks, New Brockton, president Coffee County Farm Bureau, John Donnell, Montgomery, Director of Alabama Farm Bureau, and Frank Britt, of Mt. Pleasant, vice-president Coffee County Farm Bureau.

GROWING TOMATOES

BY TOM CASADY, COUNTY AGENT

In just a few weeks, from the subsoil. About 10 to 14 days before planting, fill the hole up to four inches from the top with a mixture of three parts of top soil and one part of anything more enjoyable. There's no doubt about it, the tomato is the most popular vegetable in Alabama. And almost everyone can find a spot for a few plants.

It's still not too late to set tomatoes. Planting made now should provide tomatoes well into the fall.

Auburn University garden expert John Bagby says tomatoes are becoming increasingly popular in back yards. Two plants for each member of the family will furnish plenty of tomatoes throughout the season. And, everybody with a little spare time can grow them.

Bagby believes these pointers will make your efforts pay off.

Thorough soil preparation is important. Dig a hole 18 to 24 inches in diameter and 18 inches deep. Keep the top soil separate about every 12 inches.

GROWING TOMATOES

BY TOM CASADY, COUNTY AGENT

In just a few weeks, from the subsoil. About city and farm gardeners are beginning to pick up their tomatoes from the top with a little more care. And I don't know of anything more enjoyable than picking up a tomato. There's no doubt about it, the tomato is the most popular vegetable in Alabama. And almost everyone can find a spot for a few plants.

It's still not too late to set tomatoes. Plantings made now should provide tomatoes well into the fall. Auburn University garden expert John Bagby says tomatoes are becoming increasingly popular in back yards. Two plants for each member of the family will furnish plenty of tomatoes throughout the season. And, everywhere with a little spare time can grow them.

Bagby believes these pointers will make your efforts pay off. Thorough soil preparation is important. Dig a hole 18 to 24 inches in diameter and 18 inches deep. Keep the top soil separate about every 12 inches.

Cross the string between the stakes and plant to form a figure 8. Mulch each plant with two to four inches of straw, leaves, sawdust or grass clippings. Beginning about 30 days after planting, side dress each plant with one-third cup of 8-8-8 fertilizer every four weeks.

Water the plants often during dry weather. Also, dust your plants every week with Auburn-Approved garden dust to prevent insect and disease damage.

To keep a good supply of tomatoes on hand all summer, you should make repeated plantings. You can plant as late as July in most sections of Alabama.

I have heard many gardeners asking why their tomato plants have many blooms but set very little fruit. This usually occurs during periods of very hot, dry weather when the temperature goes above 90 degrees for several days in succession. According to Bagby, the pistil or female part of the blossom dries out before it becomes pollinated and falls off the plant rather than setting fruit.

Snaps, lima beans, and sweet corn are also subject to the same conditions. Casady says there isn't a great deal you can do to remedy this. Mulching might possibly reduce the heat reflected from the soil surrounding the plants.

Partial shading of plants during the hottest part of the day might also help to some extent.

Don't forget the weed and grass control meeting at the New Brockton National Guard Armory this Thursday morning, March 25, beginning at 9:00 a.m. First Sgt. Joe Clark is making the guard facilities available for this meeting.

All Coffee County tractor and equipment dealers are cooperating in this important two-hour meeting. We certainly appreciate this fine teamwork.

Doctor Charles F. Simmons, Associate Dean of the School of Agriculture at Auburn, wrote a few days ago concerning scholarships for boys who plan to enroll in the School of Agriculture at Auburn University. I understand that several of these will be available. They must be filed by April 1. Call on me if I can help you. I have some application forms.

Jack Bridges, Chairman of the State ASCS Committee from Headland, spoke to the county beat committeemen in New Brockton a few days ago.

greater when weather conditions are unfavorable. M.D. Bond, our peanut and soybean specialist, and a whole host of Coffee County peanut farmers believe in planting peanut seed in moist, warm soil to get a good stand.

When land has recently been limed and where higher rates of fertilizers are used, white bud shows up in corn. When you see white corn, a lot of damage has already been done. Prevent a zinc deficiency in your corn by requesting that zinc sulphate be mixed in your fertilizer especially if you have limed recently or if your pH is above 6.0.

Two big things keeping our average cotton yield from increasing in Coffee County are poor fertilizer and poor insect control. Be sure to use enough fertilizer and place it beneath and to the side of your seed to keep from having a poor stand.

Frank Britt and two or three other farmers in Coffee County are planting soybeans and are succeeding. Soybean acreage is climbing rapidly in Alabama. M.D. Bond, our peanut and soybean specialist at Auburn University, believes that our acreage needs to be stepped up sharply. If you are interested in planting soybeans this year and need help on recommendations, get in touch with us.

Wednesday, April 7, is the day for the annual Coffee County 4-H, FFA, and FFA Fat Calf Show and Sale. The show and sale will be held this year at the Enterprise Livestock Barn. Several young people will be showing cattle and competing for various prizes.

The show is being sponsored by the Coffee County Cattlemen's Association under the leadership of T. C. Whitman, President of the Association. Brown Bryars of Enterprise, Route 2, the immediate past president of this association, is chairman of the Finance Committee this year.

It is difficult to overcome the disadvantages of poor seeds simply by planting more of them. In four years of testing at the Mississippi Experiment Station, 88 pounds of 48% germination cottonseed gave fewer plants than did 48 pounds of 83% germination seed.

Differences between good and poor seed show up

G. E. Averett, E. F. Henderson, W. J. Smith, Carl E. Godwin, and Jim Frank Waters attended the 2500 Pound Per Acre Peanut banquet in Dothan last Thursday night. Billy Hornsby also qualified for this honor but was unable to attend.

Based on ASCS office records, Coffee County averaged 1197 pounds of peanuts per acre in 1964. In looking over the list of practices used by the top 20 peanut producers, we find that the one practice that stands out is least spot and insect control. All 20 of these producers dusted at least three times. We also noted that all of them applied lime, slag, or gypsum.

The annual Coffee County 4-H, FFA, and FFA Fat Calf Show and Sale will be held at the Enterprise Livestock Barn at 9:00 a.m. on April 7, 1965. The sale will begin at 1:15 p.m.

The special spring cattle sale of the Coffee County Cattlemen's Association will be held on this same date. All cattle producers are invited to bring their cattle to the sale. We certainly want a large crowd on hand for the show and sale, so come out early and see these boys and girls as they exhibit their club calves.

If you have been considering planting peas for the Elba Market, be sure to let Jake Morrow know within the next few days. Volume will solve many of the problems that this market has had in the past. The price has been increased to $70 per ton.
